How CAAF Helps Members Thrive

The Canadian Audit and Accountability Foundation (CAAF) is dedicated to promoting and strengthening public sector performance audit, oversight, and accountability in Canada and abroad through research, education, and knowledge sharing. CAAF delivers value to its members by providing resources, research and training to help them excel in their roles.

SAVE TIME

CAAF's Audit News database includes over 7,000 audit documents from nearly 60 audit institutions, providing members with a one-stop shop for audit documentation – saving them precious research time.

STAY CURRENT

CAAF publishes a wide variety of research and methodology products, including guides, discussion papers, tips and more. Our publications provide guidance on the performance audit process, information on how technological innovation affects the audit profession, and good practices for parliamentary oversight committees.

EXPAND KNOWLEDGE

Members have access to a wide range of training opportunities at a reduced fee. They can request a dedicated course tailored to their specific needs or join a course which is open for registration.

BE HEARD

Institutional members have the opportunity to influence the direction of CAAF research and comment on draft research reports and guidance documents.

STRENGTHEN ACCOUNTABILITY

CAAF offers orientation workshops to provide newly appointed parliamentary oversight committees with an understanding of their unique and important role. We also provide tailored workshops to improve effectiveness in many aspects of committee work and develop research products, tools and good practices to further support parliamentarians.

DEVELOP LEADERSHIP SKILLS

CAAF is committed to helping shape the leaders of tomorrow through our Emerging Leaders Program, which builds capacity in both leadership and critical thinking, as well as our Leading Successful Audits course, which teaches audit leaders what they need to do to make an audit successful.
